Says

Only 13 cities remained higher than tha natioal average.

have we heard them say? can we imagine them saying?

A significant disply in residential house prices acrass metrocities.

The demand for properties residential as well as commercial depends open the performance of the economy.

House prices in india have increased by 284% in real terms after allowing for inflation_equivalent to an average annual rise of 14%

To build legal housing, developers

threshold established

must meet a high

mimimum cost

by mandatery standards.

Regulations can reduce housing cast by 34% and increase supply by as much as 75%.

Analysing Housing Price In Metropolitan Area Of India

The affordable housing challenge plagues cities across india although city administrations have framed various strategies to tackle the issue.

The following threshold parameters are intrinsic to affordable housing planning for affordability threshold, standardisation threshold,income threshold affordable housing.

ousing is a key input in economic, social and covic development housing socity provide financial development.

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams? What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

The aim of housing society are econonical.

ousing prices are so high because post pandemic need for security, increased saving, and relatively little income disruption for middle and higher income grops.

Factors such as GDP growth employment rates, industrial development, and favourable government policies can increase property prices.

We don't know the price and we want to infer it by comparing it with other houses.such aslook at the features of house which could influence the house such as size, number of rooms,location,crime rate, school quality, distance to commerce.

Incread prices and housing transactions generates taxrenves.

Higher prices may lead to an expansion of new house.

Market demand and sales prices.

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?

What other feelings might influence their behavior?

Feels

